HYMN.

Broome St. 6.5.6.5. Double, with Refrain.

J. LAWRENCE ERB.

The musical score consists of six staves of music. The first three staves are in common time (C) and major (G). The fourth staff is labeled "REFRAIN." and includes the instruction "Pedale con 8va." The fifth and sixth staves are also in common time (C) and major (G). The score is written for two voices and piano, with the piano part providing harmonic support and basso continuo (pedale) notes indicated by a bass clef and a 'P'.

Hymn.

1. Unto God, our Father, Joyful songs we sing;
For His many mercies, Grateful praise we bring,
Morning's rosy splendor, Noontide's radiant light,
Twilight's mystic shadows, Melting into night.

Refrain: Unto God, our Father, Joyful songs we sing,
For His many mercies, Grateful praise we bring.

2. For His bounty floweth Wider than the sea
And His love abideth To Eternity.

There is naught so humble But His care doth know;
And the heavens in glory His great goodness show.

3. Let us then be mindful Of His tender care,
That our griefs and trials Bravely we may bear.

In the world's endeavor May we do our part,
Love and mercy ever Swelling in the heart.
